

Decision of Institutional Thematic Assessment

The attainment level of the goals of the National Institute of Technology, Wakayama College is satisfactory in the area of Institutional Thematic Assessment A, Research Activities.

Areas for improvement in Institutional Thematic Assessment A identified by the review committee include:

- Lack of clarity in the college's goals, fundamental policies, and objectives of research activities.

The attainment level of the goals of the National Institute of Technology, Wakayama College is satisfactory in the area of Institutional Thematic Assessment B, Community Outreach.

Good practices in the area of Institutional Thematic Assessment B, Community Outreach identified by the review committee include:

- The "Kinokuni Robot Festival," held 12 times up to fiscal 2018, where the college plays a core role in comprehensively organizing a national robot competition for elementary school and junior high school students, the Kinokuni Robot Contest, and a demonstration event featuring robots designed by teams representing colleges of technology that achieved excellent results in the Kosen (colleges of technology) Robot Contest and cutting-edge robots developed by research institutions.

Areas for improvement in Institutional Thematic Assessment B identified by the review committee include:

- Lack of clarity in the college's goals, fundamental policies, and objectives of community outreach.

This document has been translated by NIAD-QE with consent from the college of technology for the reader's information only.