The attainment level of the goals of the National Institute of Technology, Niihama College is satisfactory in the area of Institutional Thematic Assessment, Theme B: Community Outreach.

The review committee has identified the following best practices in the area of Institutional Thematic Assessment B:

- 1) The student-centered delivery lessons for education for sustainable development (ESD), which are offered in collaboration with elementary and junior high schools in Niihama City, are not only measures to prevent young people in the community from leaving science but also an education to foster communication skills and self-learning of participating students.
